

In solidarity with Syrian Kurdistan

On October 9, 2019, there was a Turkish attack on the territory of northeastern Syria. As part of Operation Peace Spring, Turkey began "peacefully" dropping bombs on Syrian cities, killing and injuring civilians, killing Kurdish children. The sky is black with burned tires, civilian houses are burning with bomb explosions.

It's all because of human greed and prejudice. According to numerous reports, the nationalist President of Turkey wants to liquidate Rojava and put there 3.6 million of Kurdish refugees from Turkey. It's a violation of human rights to displace people.

Turkish military has killed 174 people of Syrian Democratic Forces in Operation Peace Spring in Northern Syria so far, Turkish government says, in 2 days. In addition to this dozens of civilians were wounded and killed.

Who are the Kurds, what is Rojava?

Kurds and Syrian Democratic Forces are known for fighting Islamic State (ISIS / DAESH), and for respecting various cultures - including various branches of Christianity, Islam and atheists. In the territory of "Rojava" (north-eastern Syria) they rebuild a new, better society from rubble - where women have equal rights, residents organize into local committees and decide together, employees establish work places managed by themselves without bosses.
